

Session3

Year 3 Forest School

This week we were thinking about mapping skills and sequenced places along our journey to Forest School. When we arrived at Forest School we found that there was lots of slippery mud! Some children used this to make some fabulous mud cakes while others used the puddles as a fishing lake. We took up ropes and tarpaulins to makes dens and added rope to the banks to help us climb.