

Session 4

Year 1 Forest School

Today was a very windy day, so we enjoyed exploring the leaves. We saw them swirling about on the floor when there was a gust of wind and after discussing how to stay safe we threw some in the air to see what happened. We found out that you had to wait for the wind to blow before we threw our leaves. Some children decided to make leaf angels.

