

Spring Term Session1 10/1/18

Year 1 Forest School

Today we started our session by reading the story of 'The Gruffalo's Child' and discussed why it was a winter story. Some children had a great time making some marvellous creations in the mud kitchen. Others had fun using the measuring scales to weigh different logs. They could identify the heaviest and lightest and also compared it to their own weight.