

LKS2

BOOK MENU

PICKLEWITCH AND JACK

Claire Barker has written this hilarious story about a boy who moves to a new house...where he meets a new friend with some unusual powers!

VARJAK PAW

S F Said has written this feline adventure, which is full of excitement and mystery. Varjak learns of the 'Way' and must set out on an adventure to survive the city using his secret martial arts.

THE LONDON EYE MYSTERY

Siobhan Dowd has written an intriguing mystery which leaves you guessing right until the last minute. Ted watches his cousin get on the London Eye at 11:32am. At 12:02pm, the pod lands...but his cousin isn't on it! Where has he gone?

OVER THE LINE

Tom Palmer writes fantastic, accessible books on a range of topics. In Over The Line, Jack is making his debut as a pro-footballer in 1914. At the end of the game, they sign up for the war. The story then follows him on his journey to, and through, Flanders.

STONE AGE BOY

Satoshi Kitamura has beautifully illustrated this picture book where a little boy stumbles...into the Stone Age. Inside the story, you also discover lots of facts and information about the era too!

EIGHT PRINCESSES AND THE MAGIC MIRROR

Natasha Farrant has created eight enchanting tales about princesses who do it for themselves, that are all linked by a magic mirror. Each tale shows girls that they don't need to wait to be rescued; they can make the adventure themselves!