

Reception Forest School Session 5 12.2.2020

In Forest School this morning we thought about being on the moon. We investigated balloon rockets and predicted how far the balloons would travel along the string. Some children thought that the colour of the balloon made a difference so we explored that too. We also found moon rocks and used the tyres to make target craters. The children enjoyed the game.

