

Year 2 Forest School Session 3 11.3.2020

This week has been Science week in school. Today we thought more about animal habitats. We noticed a bee in Forest School and thought we could make something to help solitary bees. We used hacksaws to cut pieces of bamboo and tied them together to make a bundle. We then hung it in Forest School. We hope we may get some visitors to it soon.

