

Nursery Forest School

Session 1 Autumn 2 Week beginning 2nd November

Today was our first session back after half term. We read the story of Oliver's Wood and thought about light and dark. Some children collected items in Forest School and sorted them into light and dark objects. We also made a dark den for the children to explore.

