

Nursery Forest School Session 11 Week beginning 12th October

Today we read Guess how much I love you Autumn. We enjoyed exploring the autumn leaves. Some children used hole punches and made leaf necklaces, while other children enjoyed exploring the cardboard boxes just like Little Nutbrown Hare in the story. We also enjoyed filling and emptying the boxes with leaves. Some children sorted and explored the acorns and conkers using the new sorting frames.

